

Silberman School of Social Work

The Social Justice Committee

The Social Justice Committee was established in the Fall of 2015 in response to student activism at Silberman. Silberman faculty, staff, alums and students are members of the committee.

Our goal is to have the same number of students and alumni on the committee as there are faculty and staff at any given time.

Current Student and Alumni Members

Rima Begum (COP&D 2nd year, OYR student)

Andre Llewellyn – (OML 2nd year, OYR student)

Mazal Hayun-Barton – (Alumni)

Kevin Taylor – (Advanced Standing student)

Student, doctoral, and alumni members are needed from the following methods and programs:

COP&D student (1)

Clinical, 2 year student (1)

Advanced Standing student (1)

Doctoral student (1)

Alumni member (1)

Current Faculty Members

Colleen Henry

Willie Tolliver – Committee Chair

Three faculty members are needed.

Current Staff Members

Kanako Okuda, Staff

There is one staff opening on the committee.

Purpose: The committee is a proactive work group intended to address, encourage, and disseminate through multiple means, a deeper engagement with and critical examination of issues of power, privilege, oppression, race, racism, and social justice. The committee's purpose may be achieved through workshops, lectures, scholarly articles and other outreach and educational events. The committee will be action-oriented and inclusive, open to participation from all Silberman stakeholders.

Social Justice Committee Meetings – Spring Semester 2017

Wednesday, March 8, 6-8pm, Room 216

Monday, April 3, 6-8pm, Room 212

Wednesday, May 10, 6-8pm, Room 214