

JOB POSTING TITLE: Faculty Open Rank (Assistant, Associate or Full Professor)

LOCATION (Campus): Silberman School of Social Work at Hunter College

FACULTY VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

The Silberman School of Social Work at Hunter College/CUNY invites applicants for an Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor position. The Silberman School of Social Work (formerly Hunter College School of Social Work) has a national reputation as a leader in public urban education. Established in 1958, the School's mission is to prepare highly competent social work leaders to work in a variety of professional roles, settings, and communities in New York and other major urban centers in order to improve the lives of vulnerable and stigmatized people and the communities in which they live. The School is located in a state-of-the-art building in the historic and vibrant New York City neighborhood of East Harlem. Our curriculum, scholarship, and agency partnerships reflect a commitment to recruiting and educating a diverse student body, and innovations in social policy and practice that values cultural complexity and social justice for New Yorkers, their neighborhoods, and its work force. The School has 45 full-time faculty, 1,026 MSW students, is in the final phase of CSWE accreditation for a BSW program, and in conjunction with The CUNY Graduate Center offers a Ph.D. in Social Welfare.

QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants must have an earned doctorate in social work or a related field. Also required are the ability to teach successfully, demonstrated scholarship or achievement, and ability to cooperate with others for the good of the institution.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants who also have an MSW degree, at least two years of practice experience, and a clear trajectory of research and scholarship. Applicants demonstrating success in agency and community partnerships that provide opportunities for research and scholarship are encouraged to apply.

COMPENSATION

COMMENSURATE WITH ACADEMIC BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

CUNY offers a competitive compensation and benefits package to its faculty, covering health insurance, pension and retirement benefits, paid parental leave, and savings programs. We also provide mentoring and support for research, scholarship, and publication as part of our commitment to ongoing faculty professional development.
